Needs assessment summary	We conducted this assessment from many sources of information. We used the following methods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Surveys (including survey of past activity participants, and survey of general membership of a key audience) • Board of Director and/or Committee Meeting Minutes • Expert Opinion: From Physicians who are in academics and involved in teaching • Evaluation Results/Reports from Other Educational Activities • Informal Discussions/Interviews • Epidemiological Data • New Advances in Clinical Treatments • Links to Web Sites with data that can be used for needs assessment: www.nlm.nih.gov www.cdc.gov/nchs/
Learning objectives	This CME activity was developed to address the educational needs (knowledge, competence, performance that underlie the professional practice gaps of their own learners. We identified these gaps through our annual survey. It was designed to address gaps in Physician knowledge – (awareness and understanding), Physician competence – (ability to apply knowledge, skills, and judgment), Physician performance – (what is actually being done in professional practice). We would be using any or all of the below indicated methods/formats to facilitate improvements in competence, performance, or patient outcome of our readers. We hope that at this meeting we would reach level 5 of Moore’s criteria. Case-based presentations including Q and A with attendees, Pre- and Post-Testing (Audience response systems available upon request.), Panel Discussion with audience participation Take-away messages: summaries, ‘pearls,’ best practices,

	reminders (print or non-print)
Target Audience:	Our target audience includes University of Washington physicians, community physicians, and physician extenders who are currently involved in the diagnosis and treatment of patients presenting for Health care needs in the Seattle and Eastern Washington Area.

Please reply as soon as possible if you wish to have an opportunity for an exhibit space. Your support will be greatly appreciated by this organization that has over 300 physicians as its paid/potential local members.

Thank you to those who already have reserved the exhibit space in advance and accept my sincere thanks on behalf of WAPI.

Sincerely,

Usha M Reddy
